UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY WORKSHOP + SYMPOSIA

studio review + reception on cockatoo island

12th AUGUST 2006: review 11am to 6.30pm, reception until 9pm

studios:

JAIME ROUILLON, JRA, COSTA RICA

The Urban Islands studios have been running for an intensive 11-days, addressing the magnificent site of Cockatoo Island.

International studio masters Jaime Rouillon, Lisa Iwamoto, Craig Scott, Jin Hidaka and Satoru Yamashiro have been directing three diverse programs.

You are invited to view and critique the proposals prepared by each studio, which will be presented to the public on Saturday 12th August on Cockatoo Island.

IS.AR IWAMOTO SCOTT, USA

This is an excellent opportunity to visit the Island, and to take in the scenery of its post-convict, post-maritime, and post-industrial glory.

You are also invited to join us for lunch and a post-review reception from 6.30pm. Participation at any time of the day is possible.

Ferries are running from Circular Quay as part of the regular weekend tours. Please buy a return ticket for Inner Harbour (approx $10 - $15).

RESPONSIVE ENVIRONMENT, JAPAN

Ferries are leaving from Wharf 5 at Circular Quay (for Woolwich Dock) at: 10:25am and 1:25pm

Return ferries depart Cockatoo Island at: 12:45pm, 3:50pm and 9pm

A small barge will also leave the island at 6.30pm ($5.50 per person)

Sponsored by University of Sydney, Bligh Voller Nield, Sydney Harbour Federation Trust.
